

Spotlighting

Dramatic Programs

This Is Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m.—The tables are turned as Peg gives the doctor the orders. . . . How will this attitude affect her chances for recovery?

Up for Parole, KTSA, 7:30 p.m.—There's a prisoner up for parole tonight, on KTSA, and you're asked to give your decision. Form your own opinion and hear what the parole board actually did on this exciting real-life case.

Meet The Press, KMAC, 8 pm.—General Lewis B. Hershey, director of the Selective Service program, will be questioned by reporters on this program.

Music Programs

Cloud Nine, KTSA, 7 p.m.—Blending music and fantasy, Cloud Nine takes off for a 30-minute musical trip up where the blue begins. Join the rest of the passengers on this delightful flight into fantasy.

Arthur Godfrey Show, KTSA, 9:15 a.m.—Here's a sure cure for the blues every week-day morning. It's a jamboree of good humor featuring Arthur Godfrey, Archie Pryor, Janette Davis and others.

Adolph Hofner, KTSA, 12:30 p.m.—For your favorite western melodies, tune in Adolph and the Wranglers. It's good noontime listening.