

Spotlighting the Dial

Morning

Express Comics, KTSA, 9 a.m.

—Staff members of KTSA dramatize popular comic strips from the San Antonio Sunday Express.

Church of the Air, KTSA, 9:30 a.m.—Dr. Albert Buckner Coe, minister and president of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference, considers the importance of the Christian pulpit as a place for the proclamation of truth.

Invitation to Learning, KTSA,

11 a.m.—Virgilia Peterson and Hoxie Fairchild join Chairman Lyman Bryson in a discussion of one of the world's great novels, Thackeray's "Vanity Fair."

Afternoon

Syncopation Piece, KTSA, 1

p.m.—New Music program.

BOERNE NAVAL STUDENT

Among 950 Naval R.O.T.C. midshipmen beginning a two-week training course July 23 at the Naval Amphibious Base, Va., will be J. F. Kutsker, Jr., of Boerne. He is a third-year student at the University of Texas.

replacing the Choraliers, in its second broadcast.

Main Street Music Hall, KTSA,

1:30 p.m.—Popular radio tenor Jimmy Carroll is featured with Alfredo Antonini and his orchestra.

Evening

Our Town in Action, KONO,

7:30 p.m.—Harry Evons, newly-elected president of the San Antonio Safety Council, leads a discussion on "Can San Antonio Become a Traffic-Safe City?" Joining him are Captain George Bichsel, Judge Robert Sawtelle, E. L. Morris and C. J. Crampton.

Much About Doolittle, KTSA,

7:30 p.m.—Jack Kirkwood is starred in this comedy skit about a man who brags to his family about his friendship with a big business tycoon.

We Take Your Word, KTSA,

8 p.m.—Witty Cornelia Otis Skinner is guest panelist, along with regulars Abe Burrows and Lyman Bryson, in this humorous quiz show.

Carnation Contented Hour,

KTSA, 9 p.m.—Dick Haymes introduces a new tune, "Carnation Time." Joining him are Jo Stafford and Victor Young and orchestra.

Hearing Aid

By makers of world-famous Zenith