

Spotlighting the Dial

Comedy-Drama

Hollywood Star Plyahouse, KTSA, 7 p.m.—A sightseeing flight over Arizona brings an unscheduled landing and a day of horror for a pair of newlyweds in an original thriller starring Lee Bowman.

Broadway Is My Beat, KTSA, 7:30 p.m.: The sweetheart of an elderly man disappears and her apartment shows signs of violence as Det. Danny Clover solves another mysterious case.

This Is Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m.—A bitter woman makes accusations; could they be true?

Granby's Green Acres, KTSA, 8:30 p.m. — Farmer John Granby's crops are destroyed by Japanese horn-tailed beetles, and he gets in a heated political argument.

Special Programs

You and Civilian Defense KTSA, 5:15 p.m. — What plans U.S. cities are formulating to prepare for any eventuality will be described in a five-day series. Dwight Cooke will interview an expert each day on a different phase.

Game of the Day, KMAC, 12 noon—The annual Major League Hall of Fame game at Cooperstown, N. Y., featuring an exhibition classic between the New York

Giants and the Boston Red Sox.

Music Programs

Treasury Bandstand, KTSA, 3:30 p.m.—Roy Stevens Orchestra and Bernard Hermann and the Columbia Concert Orchestra in popular classics.

Curt Massey Time, KTSA, 5:30 p.m.—Curt Massey and Miss Martha Tilton open their 60th week with solos and duets in their "vacation plan" show.

Stepping Out, KTSA, 6:30 p.m. Tony Bennett, Rosemary Clooney and Tony Guarneri's quintet.

Garry Moore Show, KTSA, 6 p.m.—The popular star in a show featuring music and comedy in equal proportions.

Shep Fields Orchestra, KTSA, 11:05 p.m.—Popular current musical numbers you will want to hear.

ENLISTS IN MARINES

Hallett E. McGaffigan, 18, son of Mrs. Hattie Francis McGaffigan, 117 Aransas Ave., enlisted in the Marine Corps Thursday for four years. McGaffigan will be sent to San Diego for recruit training.

TELEVISION