

Spotlighting the Dial

Comedy-Drama

Hollywood Star Playhouse, KTSA, 7 p.m.—Van Heflin is starred in a spine-chilling thriller entitled "The Cave."

Too Many Cooks, KTSA, 8 p.m.—Apples filched by youngsters from the trees of an aged neighbor got Donald Cook in trouble.

Broadway Is My Beat, KTSA, 7:30 p.m.—A corpse is found sprawled at a piano in a New York honky-tonk in the dead of night and Danny Clover is called to investigate.

Murder At Midnight, KMAC, 8:30 p.m.—A science fiction story by Robert Newman, utilizing authenticated radar contact with the moon.

This Is Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m.—A word of caution spoken by an old man; will it affect Nora's future happiness?

Aunt Jenny, KTSA, 11:15 a.m.—Can a woman make a pretense of being happily married? Follow this story of a mother and the problem she had with her child.

Music

Arthur Godfrey, KTSA, 9:15 a.m.—The great man goes on a vacation but Robert Q. Lewis takes over for five days a week, with the regulars Bill Lawrence, Janette Davis and the choral groups.

Treasury Bandstand, KTSA, 3:30 p.m.—Roy Stevens and his orchestra playing current hit tunes.

Stepping Out, KTSA, 6:30 p.m.—Toney Bennett, Rosemary Clooney as vocalists and Johnny Guarneri's Quintet.

Curt Massey Time, KTSA, 5:30 p.m.—Songs by Massey and liltin' Martha Tilton.

Kelly Testing Helicopters

Helicopter blades are whirling at Kelly Air Force Base as the