

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 5:30—KECA—Terror strikes "Space Patrol" when Unit 72 vanishes completely during a routine flight from the planet Jupiter. In jet-hot pursuit Buzz and Happy pursue the missing unit into a sinister plot that threatens the safety of the universe.
- 6:30—KFI—Michel (Charles Boyer) tells his fascinating experience with a photographer who gets a picture of a dead queen as she walks through the door of a museum.
- 7:00—KHJ—"The Mysterious Traveler" was just an average citizen minding his own business, but the repeated attempts on his life always keep him on the alert in the story, "Footsteps Behind You."
- 8:30—KNX—Marshall Blake finds that his perfectly good alibi misfires when a key corpse turns up missing on "Satan's Waitin'". Until the body disappears the plot works beautifully, but after that the police become fussy.
- 9:00—KECA—Dr. Alonzo Myers of the Higher Education Department, N. Y. U., and Charles J. Kersten, attorney, will discuss the question, "Are Teachers Free to Teach?" This "Town Meeting" program will come from Convention Hall in Enid, Oklahoma, where Orville Hitchcock, professor of speech at the University of Iowa, will moderate.
