

Spotlighting the Dial

Comedy-Drama

Mr. Chameleon, KTSA, 7 p.m.—

After a series of nightmares in which her brother is stabbed, a girl learns that actually he has been murdered and the famous investigator discovers a real connection between her dreams and the slaying.

Dr. Christian, KTSA, 7:30 p.m.—

A bitter young man with a police record is given new hope through the warm-hearted kindness of the kindly old doctor.

This Is Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m.—Is Nora falling in love with the strange Dr. Sargeant? More than one person needs the answer.

Wendy Warren and the News,

KTSA, 11 a.m.—When the eternal triangle enters the picture, you can count on plenty of heartbreak.

The World Crisis

Living With a Crisis, KTSA, 5:15 p.m.—Quincy Howe is host and will discuss the current world problem with Dr. Herbert Human, research associate of the National Opinion Research Center of the University of Chicago.

Music Programs

ABC's of Music, KTSA, 8:30 p.m.

Billy Eckstine, singing sensation and the Fontaine Sisters widely acclaimed vocal trio, share the spotlight with three disc jockeys.

Columbia Pops Concert, KTSA,

6 p.m.—A musical voyage from the Caribbean to New York's Tenth Avenue, by way of New Orleans, is traveled by the Columbia Concert Orchestra under the direction of Bernard Herrmann.

News Program

Radio Newspaper, KTSA, 10

p.m.—Latest news from the Korean battle ground and the world and local scene gathered and analyzed for your information by the combined staffs of the wire services and the San Antonio Express and Evening News.