

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 7:30—KNX—Dan Duryea plays a minister fresh from a theological school in the "Sippy Hollywood Theater" production, "Wild Horse in Town," in which he campaigns in full force for the poor of his parish.
- 8:30—KHJ—The government official responsible for the internal security of the U. S., Attorney General J. Howard McGrath, will be the first guest to hold a news conference during "Reporters Roundup," when this new feature debuts tonight.
- 8:30—KFI—"The Doctor," a documentary on the medical profession, is the fifth in the "Advance Release" series. The devotion of two doctors to their work brings to listeners the dramatic moments faced daily by the guardians of your health.
- 9:30—KECA—Hi Brown, that master of terror techniques, presents "The Last House" as tonight's "Inner Sanctum" thriller.