

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 5:30—KECA—Charlie Peru, tough gang chief, plans to show a false set of books to the state investigating board, but "The Green Hornet" suspects his intention and tips off Peru's pal that he is about to be framed.
- 6:30—KHJ—The 17th annual football classic, the clash between College All-Stars and the National Professional League champions of 1949, will be aired tonight from Soldier Field in Chicago. This year's pro team is the all powerful Philadelphia Eagles.
- 7:00—KFI—Kenneth "Two Gun Kinnie" Wagner, one of the most deadly marksmen in the world, will be the subject of "Wanted," the manhunt for fugitives from the law. He is particularly dangerous because his pleasant manner makes him seem so innocuous.
- 8:30—KNX—The latest "Adventure of Philip Marlowe" finds him slugged in a hallway by a bird lover and in the wee sma' hours chases a madman through the black maze of an oil refinery.

TOMORROW

...ment on the self