

Spotlighting the Dial

Dramatic Programs

Hilltop House, KTSA, 2:15 p.m.

—Can a broken home be re-established? What will happen to the "mystery child" at Hilltop House?

This is Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m.—Nora receives a summons and with it some startling advice.

Philip Mariowe, KTSA, 7 p.m.—Raymond Chandler's super-sleuth has the aid of a quiet magpie in solving criminal doings.

Up For Parole, KTSA, 7:30 p.m.—Arrogant and cocksure about points of law, a 67-year-old numbers racket kingpin who, in his various endeavors, has been paid $100,000 a year for the past 25 years, comes up for a hearing before the parole board.

Wendy Warren and the News, KTSA, 11 a.m.—Two men fight over a woman and there's trouble ahead. How does Kay enter the picture, and what will Wendy find when she returns home?

Music Programs

Lanny Ross Show, KMAC, 11:15 a.m.—The personality star headlines his own variety show assisted by song stylist Louise Carlyle.

Songs For Sale, KTSA, 8 p.m.—A nation wide radio audience joins a panel of experts in appraising the songs submitted by four new tunesmiths, with Jan Murray as emcee, and Rosemary Clooney and Tony Bennett as featured vocalists.

Stepping Out, KTSA, 6:30 p.m.—Feel like stepping out tonight? Then here's wonderful way of doing it without ever leaving the house. Listen and dance to the music of Johnny Guarneri's orchestra with those two top vocalists, Rosemary Clooney and Tony Bennett.

Treasury Bandstand, KTSA, 3:30 p.m.—Gene Williams and his orchestra in a presentation of current popular songs.