

DIAL LITES—TODAY

- 9:00—KECA—The Chautauqua Choir, under the direction of Harrison Potter, features the work of George William Volkel, organist.
- 11:45—KHJ—The Department of Defense makes today's "Washington Report." The program will originate from the Korean Theater of Operations, emphasizing the activities of the Air Force, Army and Marine Corps in the current military actions there.
- 1:30—KNX—The 13th annual All-American Soap Box Derby, with 150 teen-age champions hurtling down the gravity track at Derby Downs, Akron, Ohio, will be broadcast at this time. The German champion from the U. S. Occupied Zone, Alfred Haenle, will be an outstanding competitor.
- 5:00—KFI—When a pretty young girl suddenly dies of poisoning in Sam Spade's arms, it looks like a clear case of suicide. But when he finds that the auditor for the firm in which the dead girl had worked is a murder victim, a gruesome plot falls into place.
- 9:30—KHJ—Soprano Ruth Shallet and tenor Brent Williams team up for a performance on tonight's musical "Chicago Theater of the Air." Marion Claire, the program's producer, and Everett Clark will be heard in a musico-dramatic vignette, "Midsummer Night's Dream."
- 11:15—KNX—The real-life drama of the Disabled American Veteran's organized detective work in helping ex-servicemen document their claims for government benefits when the necessary facts are obscure, will be portrayed in a special broadcast.

TELE-TIPS