

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00—KNX—"Radio Theatre," radio's longest running full hour dramatic show goes into its 17th year with an adaptation of "My Foolish Heart." Dana Andrews and Susan Hayward star.
- 7:00—KHJ—"War Front-Home Front" will link news centers in New York and Tokyo as correspondents from these points discuss the latest events on the all-important Korean theatre war front.
- 7:00—KNX—Marie Wilson, as the infinitely beautiful but hopelessly dumb Irma, returns to regale her listeners and plague her associates when "My Friend Irma" resumes her gay misadventures.
- 7:30—KECA—Prof. Ashmed S. Bokhart, Pakistan's chief delegate to the U N., will face a battery of U. N. newsmen on the public interest series, "United or Not."
- 8:30—KFI—Gordon MacRae and Lucille Norman turn the clock back to 1929 for songs and tales on the summer show train of "The Railroad Hour."

TELE-TIPS