

Spotlighting the Dial

Comedy and Drama

Skippy Hollywood Theater, KTSA, 9:30 p.m.—Screen Star Wayne Morris is heard as Pete, a small-town garage owner, in the dramatic production "A Date for Agnes." Pete's romance with Josephine is nearly broken up by Agnes, possessed of an almost intolerably shrill voice.

Mr. Keen, KTSA, 7:30 p.m.—The death of a retired farmer who collected silver dollars as a hobby occupies "The Tracer of Lost Persons." The victim's daughter-in-law disappears and another member of the family solves the mystery.

F.B.I. in Peace and War, KTSA, 7 p.m.—Larry Haines plays the part of a holdup gang that is hiding out and is tracked down by F.B.I. Agent William Sheppard. Huge deliveries of groceries to a house where only one man is supposed to live provide the clue that trips off the federal officers.

Music Programs

Club 15, KTSA, 6:30 p.m.—Bob Crosby, Jo Stafford and the Modernaires open with "Hoop De Doo Polka," Miss Stafford and the Mods sing "Mona Lisa," Crosby sings "Daddy's Little Boy" and Jerry Gray's orchestra is spotlighted in the maestro's arrangement of "Waters of Minnetonka"

News Program

Radio Newspaper, KTSA, 10 p.m.—Latest roundup of world, national and local news as compiled by wire services and the combined staffs of the San Antonio Express and Evening News, and edited and arranged by specially trained news interpreters on the radio station staff.
