

Spotlighting the Dial

Morning Programs

Express Comics, KTSA, 9 a.m.

The famous comic strips in the San Antonio Sunday Express are dramatically acted out by the staff members of the radio station.

Church Of The Air, KTSA,

9:30 a.m.—Featured speaker is Dr. Murray A. Cayley, minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Rochester, N.Y.

Invitation to Learning, KTSA,

10:35 a.m.—Chairman Lyman Bryson and guests, John Mason Brown and Gilbert Highet, discuss Aristotle's "Poetics."

Afternoon Programs

The Symphonette, KTSA, 3:30 p.m.—Mishel Piastro, world famous violinist, doubles as soloist and conductor when he plays with cellist Joseph Schuster and the orchestra in Gounod's arrangement of the "Ave Maria." The orchestra also presents the stately last movement from Schubert's seldom-heard Symphony No. 2 in B flat major. Our Miss Brooks, KTSA, 5:30 p.m.—Connie Brooks, played by Eve Arden, is forced to protect the high school principal when he fires the football coach.

Night Programs

Pause That Refreshes, KTSA,

7 p.m.—Great soprano Dorothy Maynor joins Percy Faith and orchestra as soloist with a program of English ballads, and other songs, including "Jeanie With The Light Brown Hair."

Sylvan Levin Opera Concert,

KMAC, 8 p.m.—Soprano Eileen Faul, and tenor Joseph Victor Laderoute are featured singing the Grand Duo from Act IV of Meyerbeer's "Les Huguenots."

Jack Benny Show, KTSA, 8

p.m. The very popular comedian with all his players in a mad melange of humor and music.

Harold Peary Show, KTSA,

6:30 p.m.—Honest Harold promises to curb his desire for civic crusades, but gets tangled in new troubles with his rival.

Carnation Contented Hour,

KTSA, 9 p.m.—Dick Haymes, Jo Stafford and Victor Young's orchestra in a musical show whose popularity increases with each program.

Horace Heidt Show, 8:30 p.m.

The popular conductor continues with another session of his youth opportunity program which introduces new stars.

Meet Corliss Archer, KTSA, 8 p.m.—Corliss and her boy friend, Dexter, break with convention in attempting to elect Mr. Archer to the presidency of the country club.

Alamo Teachers Set Workshop

The Alamo District No. 2, Texas Teachers Assn., will hold a day-long workshop beginning at 9 a.m., Monday at the Gunter with a panel of authoritative speakers holding clinics on various teacher problems.

More than 150 representatives from 31 counties in the district are expected to attend the workshop. Mrs. Sadie Ray Rowell