

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 8:30--KFI--A medley of Sigmund Romberg songs will be the feature on Carmen Dragon's "Starlight Concert." Also on the program of light concert favorites is "In the Blue of the Evening," sung by Eloise.
- 9:00--KNX--Luigi Baseo has transfer trouble when a street car conductor demands an extra dime, and goes to the company offices to complain. There he becomes a member of an executive meeting and manages to confound the whole group. Such is "Life With Luigi."
- 7:30--KFI--In "Big Town," Editor Steve Wilson, with the help of quick-witted Lorelei, helps prison authorities forestall two attempts to murder a condemned man before he implicates a ward-heel politician as "Murder Stalks the Death House."
- 7:30--KECA--"Paul Whiteman Presents" . . . more of his listenable music as he starts a new season aimed to give you much enjoyment.
- 9:30--KHJ--A fortune-hunting young man attempts to murder his rich aunt, but Lt. Dan Britt takes a hand in the case titled "Cry Wolf." Once again the quick-thinking "Official Detective" saves the day, or at least somebody's aunt.
