Dramatic Programs

Mr. and Mrs. North, KTSA, 7:30 p.m.—Pam and Jerry find that their favorite Long Island fishing village has its own brand of evil citizens when an ex-convict is kidnapped and an unsavory hotel keeper is killed. Needless to say, Pam and Jerry settle the case dramatically.

Mystery Theater, KTSA, 7 p.m.—An obese antique dealer who had been warned that over-eating would prove fatal is killed by poison in a forbidden dessert and Inspector Hearthstone, played by Alfred Shirley, finds himself in another mysterious case.

Sky King, KMAC, 5:30 p.m.—The popular hero of this dramatic series recovers a stolen horse and saves the day when "Son of Fury" wins an important race.

Comedy and Music

Life With Luigi, KTSA, 8 p.m.—Luigi, played by J. Carroll Naish, demands an explanation from company executives when a street car conductor shows more interest in a new dime than an old transfer, and learns more about America and Americans.

House Party, KTSA, 2:30 p.m.—The genial master of this fun-filled program continues his "Life Begins at Fifty" contest and introduces Perc Westmore, Hollywood make-up specialist, as his guest.

Treasury Bandstand, KTSA, 3:30 p.m.—Bernard Hermann conducts the Columbia Concert Orchestra in a program of semi-classical and popular music.
