

DIAL LITES—TODAY

- 11:00—KFI—The problems of marriage will be under consideration by a panel of two laymen and two representatives of the church in a new series of "Catholic Hour" broadcasts. Why some marriages fail is the first topic for discussion.
- 2:30—KECA—Radio's most cited public interest program, "Greatest Story Ever Told," starts the new season with the tale of "The Woman Who Was Forgiven." It tells of the compassion of the Master for Mary Magdalene after she had repented her past.
- 4:30—KNX—De Kingfish is busy being a draft-dodger as the curtain rises on the first of this season's "Amos 'n' Andy" programs. Through a mistake of the draft board he has been classified 1-A and his various efforts to avoid the draft only seem to get him in deeper all the time.
- 5:30—KFI—"Theater Guild of the Air" makes a special trip to Cleveland, Ohio, to present a tribute to the Community Chest of America with the broadcast of the musical hit "Brigadoon." Dennis Morgan and Patrice Munsel are co-starred in this whimsical play of life in a Scottish village.
- 6:00—KHJ—Character actor Guy Kibbee will be on hand to try his skill at identifying objects in the "Animal, Vegetable or Mineral" categories when he makes a guest appearance on the "Twenty Questions" broadcast.
- 9:00—KNX—The "Red Skelton Show," featuring one of America's most original and enduring clowns, returns to the air after a summer vacation. All of the redhead's romping characterizations will be around to insure a witty satire each Sunday evening.

TELE-TIPS