Spotlighting the Dial

Express Comics, KTSA, 9 a.m. The famous comic strips in the Sunday edition of the San Antonio Express are dramatized by staff members of KTSA in a half hour program.

Church of the Air, KTSA, 9:30 a.m.—The famous Salt Lake City Choir will sing six hymns.

Invitation to Learning, KTSA, 10:35 a.m.—The varying fidelities of the two classic lovers in Shakespeare's "Anthony and Cleopatra" will be discussed by actress-producer Margaret Webster, critic-journalist John Mason Brown and chairman Lyman Bryson.

Escape, KTSA, 2 p.m.—Returning to the air, this famous drama series brings to life outstanding stories of adventure. The first program is "A Sleeping Draft," by Weston Martyr, the story of the master of a merchant ship and an unforgettable cargo of 400 convicts, bound from England for the penal colony of Australia.

The Symphonette, KTSA, 1:30 p.m.—Distinguished pianist Leonid Hambro plays the final rondo movement of the Tchaikovsky Concerto No. 1 for Piano and Orchestra in B flat minor, under the direction of Mishel Plastro.

Roy Rogers Show, KMAC, 5 p.m. — The famous cowboy, Dale Evans and Gabby Hayes featured in another exciting story as they restore peace and order to Paradise Valley.

Our Miss Brooks, KTSA, 5:30 p.m. — Eve Arden as the school teacher finds that she can't even get a simple case of measles without incurring the rage of Principal Conklin.

Amos 'n' Andy, KTSA, 6:30 p.m.—George (De Kingfish) Stevens and Andrew H. (for Hogg) Brown square off again for the first program in their third season on CBS.

Red Skelton Show, KTSA, 7:30 p.m. — Returning from the summer vacation, this program brings back one of America's most original and enduring clowns, with many familiar voices in the supporting cast.

Theater Guild, WOAI, 7:30 p.m. The musical play "Brigadoon," a heart-warming story of faith set to music, stars Dennis Morgan and Patrice Munsel.

Lost Husband's