

Spotlighting the Dial

Mystery and Fun

Truth Or Consequences, KTSA, 8:30 p.m.—Ralph Edwards, who left a farm near Merino, Colo., to make a name for himself, returns to be welcomed by Governor Lee Knous at an all-day picnic, with the show to be broadcast from a stage in front of the schoolhouse.

House Party, KTSA, 2:30 p.m. Edith Head, famed fashion designer for Paramount Pictures is the guest of fun-loving Art Linkletter.

Mystery Theater, KTSA, 7 p.m. The strange death of an elderly woman who inhaled poisonous fumes from an electric vaporizer is investigated by Inspector Heathstone, the famous sleuth.

Baby Snooks Show, WOAI, 7:30 p.m.—Fanny Brice returns as the perennial problem child, with Hanley Stafford playing the part of Daddy.

Mr. and Mrs. North, KTSA, 7:30 p.m.—A concert singer's premonition that his wife has designs on his life brings a case in which Pam's womanly intuition saves an innocent suspect after the artist's murder.

Life With Luigi, KTSA, 8 p.m. J. Carrol Naish goes to New York for a broadcast and entertains Frank Sinatra as a guest star.

Straight Arrow, KMAC, 5 p.m. The Comanche Indian chief sees the Sing of the Dagger and does something about it in an exciting mystery.

Aunt Jenny, KTSA, 11:15 a.m. The famous story-teller begins the real-life story of "Helpmate," concerning a woman whose little project to augment the family income proved a turning point in her life and her husband's.

Arthur Godfrey Time, KTSA, 9 a.m.—One and one-half hours of the inimitable Godfrey chatter, plus some of the finest in modern songs by Bill Lawrence, Janette Davis and several vocal groups.

Music

Jack Smith Sings, KTSA, 6:15 p.m. Dinah Shore joins the vocalist master of ceremonies in a duet of "Hey, Babe," and solos "You're Driving Me Crazy" and "My Silent Love."

TO AID DIGESTION AND KEEP BREATH SWEET—
ENJOY THIS TASTY CHEWING TREAT...WRIGLEY'S
SPEARMINT GUM!

AT HOME - AT WORK - AT PLAY