

ng the Dial

presently very much in the news, Ishak Zahir, information officer of the Republic of Indonesia will discuss the newest nation in Asia.

Call Board, KONO, 7 p.m. — Amy Freeman Lee will discuss the Alamo Chapter, American Guild of Organists' organ recital by Dr. Fritz Heitman; the Film Forum's presentation of "The Informer," and dramatic highlights of the summer.

Dramatic Programs

Hallmark Playhouse, KTSA, 9 p.m. — Edmund Gwenn, beloved screen actor currently starring in "Mister 880," plays an aging country doctor in the Octavus Roy Cohen story, "The Final Tribute."

Suspense, KTSA, 8 p.m. — Comedian Milton Berle essays a new type of role when he takes the lead in "Rave Notice," a story about a ham actor who kills the producer when he is taken out of a legitimate show.

Sky King, KMAC, 5:30 p.m. — The swashbuckling adventurer roams the world in his crusade against criminals.

Mr. Keen, KTSA, 7:30 p.m. — With this program one of radio's top-rated mystery programs begins its 14th year of thrilling crime solutions involving missing persons and murder. On this program, "the Tracer of Lost Persons" is asked to determine who killed a young man who was hitchhiking to the city.

F.B.I. In Peace and War, KTSA, 7 p.m. — Two crooks posing as representatives of a prison welfare fund work a graft in small town churches, but the federal agents move in to end the racket.

Music and Fun

House Party, KTSA, 2:30 p.m. — Genial Art Linkletter, searching for the newest first-time father, introduces Dr. Paul Popenor, family relations counselor, as his guest star.

Be Kn
Fr

E