

Spotlighting the Dial

Godfrey's Talent Scouts, KTSA, 7:30 p.m.—With the old maestro in his usual form, new entertainment acts will get a hearing on the air in this popular and highly interesting program which introduces new entertainers on the road to success.

Lux Radio Theater, KTSA, 8 p.m.—Anne Baxter and Richard Conte co-star and Thomas Gomez head the supporting cast in a dramatization of the hit movie, "House of Strangers."

Hollywood Star Playhouse, KTSA, 7 p.m.—Screen actor Robert Ryan stars in "Reluctant Witness," a story about an accountant whose remarkable memory puts his life in danger when he prepares to testify about a terrifying traffic accident he has witnessed.

House Party, KTSA, 2:30 p.m.—Genial Art Linkletter is trying to send a man and his wife on a ten-day Caribbean cruise by playing the "Who-Is-It" game. A new clue is added with each wrong answer until a winner is found.

Romance of Helen Trent, KTSA, 11:30 a.m.—Gil and Helen are brought face to face when she has an auto accident near his home.

Club 15, KTSA, 6:30 p.m.—Saluting National Letter Writing Week, Head man Bob Crosby and the Andrews Sisters sing, "I'm Gonna Paper All My Walls with Your Love Letters." Crosby solos "Thinking of You," and the group closes with "Good Night, Irene."

Wendy Warren and the News, KTSA, 11 a.m.—Midday headlines by Douglas Edwards and the story of reporter Wendy's romantic career.

Our Gal. Sunday, KTSA, 11:45 a.m.—In an investigation of a jewelry theft, Sunday learns indirectly that she is under suspicion.

Nona From Nowhere, KTSA, 2 p.m.—Kay Lanier, determined to break Vernon Dutell's engagement to Nona, makes a threat.

Hilltop House, KTSA, 2:15 p.m.—The Orphanage Board calls Julie to task for rumors about Phxie's rebellious school attitude.

Send