

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00—KFI—For 13 years a little old Los Angeles lady has been cashing rubber checks. After a new flurry of "bad paper" is reported, the detectives on "Dragnet" track down the erring grandmother. Am anxious to recommend this one as the local scene makes for better listening.
- 6:00—KNX—Barbara Stanwyck plays the role of a notorious beauty, who finds a murdered man in her apartment in tonight's presentation of "Suspense." Title of the story is "The Wages of Sin."
- 7:00—KECA—Academy Award winning actress Mercedes McCambridge, a product of radio before she became an overnight movie star in "All the King's Men," has been cast for the full-hour dramatization of the immortal "The Informer" . . . during "Screen Guild Theater" time.
- 8:30—KFI—The entire cast and technical staff of the "Henry Aldrich" program will visit Pittsburgh this week where the program will emanate. This will be in conjunction with "Pennsylvania Week" which is to be celebrated during this time.
- 10:35—KECA—"The World's Most Honored Music," as played by the famous "Symphonette" program, will be heard in response to the wishes of millions of listeners via an "in-person" tour of the program. The mentioned tour started Oct. 14 and ends Dec. 7.
- 11:00—KHJ—This network will air an address by Vice President Alben W. Barkley from the annual Alfred E. Smith Memorial Dinner tonight from New York.

TELE-TIPS

8:00—KSTP—Alan Young, as an agent for the Square Deal real