

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00—KFI—A gang of narcotic peddlers move into Los Angeles with a novel scheme to outwit the police on the dramatic documentary of cases from police files, "Dragnet."
- 7:00—KNX—Lonel Barrymore visits the "Playhouse" tonight to narrate the famous "Legend of Sleepy Hollow," adapted for radio by Jean Holloway. James Hilton introduces Barrymore, who tells the story of the schoolmaster from around Tarrytown, N. Y., on the banks of the Hudson.
- 7:00—KECA—One of the screen's most dynamic stars, Jeff Chandler, will costar with Dorothy McGuire in the one-hour radio premiere of the comedy "Mother Didn't Tell Me" during the airing of "Screen Guild Players."
- 8:30—KFI—A masculine revolt against feminine invasion of their sartorial rights is spearheaded by Henry Aldrich and Homer tonight. Tired of seeing the high school girls slopping around in dungarees and shapeless shirts, the boys decide to shame them into daintier attire by having the boys wear girls clothes for a day!
- 9:50—KHJ—Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. will be under fire tonight from the panel of newsmen during the "Reporter's Roundup" program.
