

Spotlighting the Dial

Drama-Comedy

House party, KTSA, 2:30 p.m.—Singer Helen Forrest will be the guest of Art Linkletter on his "House Party" from Hollywood.

Mystery Theater, KTSA, 7 p.m.—A lawsuit that leads to cleverly planned murder occupies Inspector Hearstone in "The Alienation of Affection Murder Case." Alfred Shirley plays the sleuth.

Mr. and Mrs. North, KTSA, 7:35 p.m.—No one is more surprised than Pamela North when she convinces a paroled ex-convict that one murder, committed to blast one side out of the "eternal triangle," is par for the course and a second killing, for revenge, would be useless.

Life with Luigi, KTSA, 8:05 p.m.—The story takes on a new complexity when Luigi Basco, played by J. Carrol Naish, goes out of his way to try to get married, after his mother expresses concern about his bachelor status.

Music

Curt Massey Time, KTSA, 5:30 p.m.—Miss Tilton sings "Nevertheless," then joins Massey in "You Wonderful You."

News

Radio Newspaper, KTSA, 10 p.m.—Latest wire reports and local news brought to you through the combined efforts of San Antonio Express and KTSA news staffs.

Lt. Francis Harris Assigned at Brooke

Lt. Francis W. Harris, Army Medical Service Corps, is newly assigned as motor transport officer at Medical Field Service School. He has recently returned to active military duty from the Organized Reserve Corps. He previously served with the Army from 1939 to 1945, participated in the African and Italian campaigns.

Lt. Harris will make his home near the Brooke Army Medical Center with his wife, Mrs. Verna Harris of Neenah, Wis., and their three children, who will join him in December.

TELEVISION