

Spotlighting

The Hidden Million, KTSA, 9:30 p.m.—This story dramatizes the medical war against diabetes in cooperation with the campaign to test 5,000,000 Americans for presence of the disease.

Jack Smith Sings, KTSA, 6:15 p.m. — Margaret Whiting joins Smith for a duet, "El Rancho Grande," and solos "Life Is So Peculiar" and "Thinking of You." Smith's solos include "White Christmas."

Up For Parole, KTSA, 8 p.m. —"The Case of Walter Kesso," who resorted to violence when he saw his 29-year-old gas station business failing because of unexpected competition is dramatized as he applies for parole.

Club 15, KTSA, 6:30 p.m.—The Andrews Sisters start the program with "Rainy Day Refrain." The trio sings "Sweet Angie" and joins Bob Crosby in the inspirational number "Our Lady of Fatima" which they will dedicate to Armistice Day.

Broadway's My Beat, KTSA, 8:30 p.m.—Detective Danny Clover stalks his prey in Manhattan's theatrical dis-