

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00—KHJ—Fred Allen will be starred tonight in a special broadcast to be presented in co-operation with the American Diabetes Association. The program will be part of the 1950 Diabetes Detection Drive.
- 6:30—KFI—Dennis Day and Gloria de Haven watch a television "Missing Persons" show with interesting results. They see a man who will be deported if his brother doesn't come for him. . . . Dennis responds to the occasion heroically.
- 7:00—KNX—The phantom voice on the "Sing It Again" program last week was identified by a Chicago woman as Fred Merkle, one-time New York Giants' baseball player famed for failing to touch second base in a key game. A new phantom voice was immediately presented, who offered this initial clue to his identity: "Hello and how are you, for Jim and Johnny too? Who is the president that brings two clues to you?"
- 8:00—KECA—Phil Martin had been framed and sent to jail by Sam Eton. Everyone expected him to want to get even with Eton, so when Blacky and his gang attack Eton, Martin is framed again. At this stage "The Lone Ranger" steps in.
