

Spotlighting the Dial

Hallmark Playhouse, KTSA, 8:30 p.m.—Academy Award Winner Joan Fontaine stars in "The Enchanted April," a story about a colorless, maritally unhappy British housewife who, with three other women in various states of unhappiness, rents an Italian villa for the month of April, with surprising results.

You and the World, KTSA, 5:15 p.m.—Continuing its series on George Bernard Shaw, Rosamond Gilder, former editor of Theater Arts Monthly, will discuss the famed playwright as a dramatist.

Suspense, KTSA, 8 p.m.—Screen Star Cary Grant runs into terror "On a Country Road" in a thrilling drama.

Scott on "The Pattern of Russian Expansion."

The Line-Up, KTSA, 9 p.m.—Dramatization based on hypothetical cases of criminals and suspects appearing for police identification in the line-up.

Mr. Keen, KTSA, 7:30 p.m.—A zoo 50 miles from the city, is the scene of a strange murder and a keeper asks the "Tracer of Lost Persons" to solve a mystery.

TELEVISION

WOAI-TV

Channel 4

Thursday Evening

P.M.

5:30—Kate Smith Show

5:45—Sandy Strong

6:00—Tree House