

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:30—KNX—Lucille Ball has no trouble with her readin' and ritin' but her rithmetic' is so bad that she can't keep her checkbook straight . . . she enrolls in night school and with the help of "My Favorite Husband" does her homework so expertly that she is acclaimed a mathamatical genius by the class.
- 8:00—KECA—An old man awaits the return of his son the "Prodigal Sheriff." But the ruthless Gonzales gang attempt to snatch power in his absence until the "Lone Ranger" and Tonto brave a battery of guns to bring the boy home.
- 8:00—KNX—Vaughn Monroe and his band begin a series of camp shows. The first one originates from the U. S. Naval Hospital in Philadelphia.
- 8:30—KFI—Astride the highest Himalayas in the middle of Asia, Ken Thurston, played by Herbert Marshall, finds danger and intrigue on the first broadcast of "The Man Called X" in this new time spot.