

DIAL LITES—TODAY

- 3:00—KFI—Ed Wynn is back in radio! The prince of nonsense will appear as guest today with mistress or ceremonies Tallulah Bankhead on the "Big Show."
- 4:30—KHJ—Peter Salem's aid, Marty, falls for his barber—a beautiful girl—and sets in motion the events leading to the solution of a counterfeiting-murder plot, during "The Affairs of Peter Salem."
- 5:30—KFI—Melvyn Douglas and Tom Helmore co-star with Gloria Swanson in the "Theater Guild on the Air" show tonight. The production will be a radio adaptation of W. Somerset Maugham's "Theater."
- 6:30—KECA—"The American Album of Familiar Music," a favorite of millions, and now in its 20th year on the air, will start tonight on this network. Beginning with the show tonight will be Evelyn MacGregor, a long-time radio favorite.
- 7:00—KNX—Tony Martin and Jo Stafford do the seasonal duet, "Winter Wonderland" on the "Contented Hour." There are of course, solos by each of these stars, as well as music from Victor Young and the orchestra.
- 9:30—KHJ—Kurt Weill's charming fantasy, "One Touch of Venus," will be presented for the first time on the "Chicago Theater of the Air." Nancy Carr, lyric soprano, and Bruce Foote, baritone, will be in the leading singing roles.
- 10:30—KNX—A talking horse is in the story told tonight on "Make Believe Town."

TELE-TIPS

... as KFI's singing star Harry Habbitt emcees the full hour