

Spotlighting the Dial

Make-Believe Town, KTSA, 9 p.m.—A woman photographer, employed by her fiance, sets out to prove that she can make more money working for herself. A magazine assignment takes her to the home of a prominent movie actor with whom she once had been in love. Leading roles are played by John Dehner and Betty Lou Gerson.

F.B.I. In Peace and War, KTSA, 7 p.m.—Federal agents take an occupational interest in a couple whose high living is provided by income from gullible people who willingly pay them large sums of money for establishing their claims to fortunes that do not exist.

Mr. Keen, KTSA, 7:30 p.m.—“The Tracer of Lost Persons” gets an urgent call from a woman columnist and is plunged into the “Case of the Red-Headed Murderer.”

Suspense, KTSA, 8 p.m.—Ray Milland has an exciting adventure in a play titled “After the Movies,” by Jack Finney.

TELEVISION

WOAI-TV