

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00—KNX—Here is a down-to-earth, true-to-life dramatic series which features the experiences of the little Italian immigrant, Luigi. His predicaments are all very realistic and the part is most adeptly played by J. Carrol Naish.
- 7:00—KNX—Trumpet virtuoso Rafael Mendez makes a return guest appearance with Lucille Norman on her "Hollywood Music Hall" show.
- 8:00—KECA—"The Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air," continuing its search for young singers throughout the country, will present Beverly Jane Welch, contralto, from Detroit, Mich., and tenor Victor Clarke from Wilmington, Del.
- 8:30—KFI—Young Lt. Grant's courtship of a southern belle will be dramatized on "Cavalcade of America" tonight, when Ronald Reagan plays the title role of Gen. U. S. Grant in the story titled "Ulysses in Love."
- 8:30—KECA—A special broadcast will be given tonight direct from the annual dinner of the Democratic national committee, in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City. Participating will be Vice President Alben Barkley, Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn, and New York City's Mayor, Vincent Impellitteri.
