

The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00—KFI—Matters look very desperate tonight for the "Magnificent Montague" in the comedy episode which stars Monty Woolley.
- 6:30—KNX—Radio stars Jack Smith, Eve Arden and Margaret Whiting will headline a special broadcast tonight saluting the 1951 Pasadena Tournament of Roses Queen and her court. Seven coeds will be present on the show . . . and one of these lucky girls will be chosen as the queen.
- 7:00—KECA—From Madison Square Garden we have the special 10-round bout which features Ray Framechon, European featherweight champ, and Glen Flanagan from Detroit.
- 7:30—ALL NETWORKS—(KFI, KECA, KHJ, KNX)—President Truman will make a special speech tonight on the subject of controls and the possible proclamation of a national emergency.
- 8:30—KNX—"A Report to the Nation," described as "one of the biggest adventures in news coverage attempted," will make its debut tonight as a weekly full-hour documentary, with Edward R. Murrow as narrator.
- 10:35—KECA—Gloria Swanson, Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker and Sen. James W. Wadsworth of N. Y. will participate in a special program commemorating the anniversary of the signing of the Bill of Rights.
- 12:30—KFWB—A new program of audience participation will be broadcast nightly from this station following the Gene Norman show. The show titled "The Sam Mannis Show" will have plenty of action, laughs and surprises.

SPECIAL TOMORROW

- 11:00 A. M.—KECA—The Metropolitan Opera Company today presents the popular Rossini opera "The Barber of Seville."
- 1:30—KNX—For an hour and a half, CBS presents the "United Nations Human Rights Program."
- 4:00—KNX—This is the final stakes race of the current Hollywood Park season, the "Sunset Handicap" for $50,000 added.