

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00—KNX—Robert Mitchum and Laraine Day will star in the "Radio Theatre" adaptation of "Holiday Affair" tonight.
- 7:00—KFI—Music unfamiliar and familiar will make up the programming tonight of the NBC Symphony under the direction of Guido Cantelli.
- 8:00—KHJ—George investigates an apparent suicide and finds some surprising facts in the dead man's background . . . and then comes up with a very unexpected solution in "Let George Do It."
- 8:30—KFI—The fantastic story of a mythical Scottish town will be retold when the musical "Brigadoon" is presented on "The Railroad Hour." Marion Bell, who played the leading part on Broadway, will re-create her role as co-star with Gordon MacRae.
- 9:00—KNX—William Holden plays a love-crazed man who hatches a plot against his best friend, then finds himself the target of the latter's plot after the first one misfires. The story—"The Tangled Web"—and the program—"Hollywood Star Playhouse."
- 9:00—KFI—Robert Casadesus, noted pianist, will appear as guest tonight on the "Telephone Hour."

TELE-TIPS