

The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters.

DIAL LITES—TODAY

- 10:30 A. M.—KECA-KMPC—National Pro-football championship, Rams vs. Browns.
- 2:00—KECA—In both sermon and song, the joyous meaning of Christmas will be emphasized in the broadcast of "The Voice of Prophecy."
- 3:00—KFI—Tallulah Bankhead and her platoon of guestars will dedicate "The Big Show" of Christmas Eve to the men and women of the armed forces, both at home and overseas. Jimmy Durante and Ed Wynn will keynote the proceedings.
- 4:00—KNX—Jack Benny is to have "open house" on his show this afternoon and, in traditional fashion, will dole out gifts such as shoe laces, etc., to members of his cast.
- 5:30—KFI—A radio adaptation of Charles Dickens' classic, "David Copperfield" is the choice of "Theater Guild on the Air" for this Christmas Eve, starring Boris Karloff.
- 7:00—KHJ—For the fourth consecutive year, this network, in co-operation with Father Patrick Peyton, C. S. C., will present "The Joyful Hour" program of narration and music in the Christmas theme.
- 9:30—KFI—Here is the annual Salvation Army's "Army of Stars" program which this year features the voices of Lily Pons and Robert Weede.
- 11:00—KNX—The birth of Christ will be announced in joyful song by soprano Dorothy Maynor in the annual midnight Christmas Carol Program. The Collegiate Chorale and the Columbia Concert Orchestra will be conducted by Alfredo Antonini.
- 11:00—KHJ—Vincent Price will star in the role of Joseph, and Lynn Allen will be heard as the Virgin Mary, during this broadcast of "Thou Bethlehem."

TELE-TIPS