

Spotlighting the Dial

Church of the Air, KTSA, 9:30 a.m.—A special program of liturgical and other sacred music appropriate to the Christmas season sung by the St. Philip Neri Choristers of New York.

Invitation to Learning, KTSA, 10:35 a.m.—As the autobiographical work in its current series of 20th century classics, this program will offer "Out of My Life and Thought," by the great French medical missionary and musicologist, Albert Schweitzer. Herman Hagedorn and Andre Michalopoulos will discuss the book.

New York Philharmonic-Symphony, KTSA, 12 noon (FM only)—Two major works in the symphonic repertoire will be conducted by George Szell. They are "Paganiniana," by the Italian composer, Alfredo Casella, in his first broadcast by this orchestra, and the monumental Symphony No. 8 in C minor of Bruckner.

Christmas Carol, KMAC, 3 p.m.—For the 16th consecutive year this program brings Charles Dickens' classic, "Christmas Carol," with Lionel Barrymore's immortal interpretation of Scrooge again the presentation highlight.

The Symphonette, KTSA, 1:30 p.m.—Traditional and modern Christmas music will be conducted by Michel Piastro for its Yuletide broadcast.

Meet Frank Sinatra, KTSA, 4 p.m.—Lisa Kirk, popular songstress, and Singer Russ Emery will be guests of Frank Sinatra.

Theater Guild, WOAI, 7:30 p.m.—A radio adaptation of the Charles Dickens' classic, "David Copperfield," will be presented with a cast including Boris Karloff, Cyril Ritchard, Flore Robson, Hugh Williams, Richard Burton and David Cole.

Carnation Contented Hour, KTSA, 9 p.m.—Tony Martin, Jo Stafford, the Ken Lane ensemble and Victor Young's orchestra offer a medley of Christmas songs. All singers join with Victor Young and his orchestra in the production number, "Rudolph, the Red-Nose! Reindeer."

The Choraliers, KTSA, 9:30 p.m.—In a special arrangement for a four-part male choir the singers present six beloved Christmas carols and Conductor Eugene Lowell features a medley from Walt Disney's "Snow White."

Edgar Bergen Show, KTSA, 7 p.m.—Bobby Driscoll, child Academy Award winner, and Kathryn Beaumont, English child actress, are guests of Charlie McCarthy.

Meet Corliss Archer, KTSA, 8 p.m.—The Archers face a two-winged dilemma on Christmas Day when the mothers of both Archer parents decide they will each cook a full turkey dinner.

Horace Heidt Show, KTSA 8:30 p.m.—Lou di Maggio, young accordion player and cousin of the baseball heroes, defends his championship as the 1951 youth opportunity competition begins.

BEAUTIFUL GIRLS and hilarious laughter are mingled in "one of the better film comedies of the season, "Watch the Birdie," which is playing at the Aztec Theater. Stars are Dancer Ann Miller, Comic Red Skelton and glamorous Arlene Dahl. The picture plays through Christmas week.

GINNINGS TOTALED

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE

FLATONIA.—C. W. Meyer, special agent of the Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, reports that 10,945 bales of cotton were ginned in Fayette County from the crop of 1950 prior to Dec. 1, 1950 as compared with 22,757 bales for the crop of 1949.

Salesman wanted to represent large midwest Decalcomania company with a fast-selling line of state and souvenir decals, etc. Call on souvenir jobbers, drug chains, novelty and national jobbers, news companies, etc. Liberal commission. Write full particulars and present territory first letter. Replies confidential. Address box 415, Express.