

DIAL LITES—TODAY

10:00 A. M.—KNX—The distinguished violinist Erica Morini is soloist as George Szell conducts the New York Philharmonic Symphony. She will play the Tchaikovsky "Concerto for Violin and Orchestra in D Major."

12:30—KNX—During pre-Christmas week, top correspondents of the foreign corps of CBS have been flown in from almost every corner of the globe, for the full-hour year-end report broadcast with Edward R. Murrow as chairman.

1:00—KNX—On his New Year's Eve show, Jack Benny will present a serio-comic fantasy in which the old year, represented by Father Time, greets little 1951 and gives him some tips.

5:30—KFI—"Theater Guild on the Air" will enliven the New Year's Eve proceedings with a production of "State Fair," starring Van Heflin, Gene Lockhart, Kathleen Lockhart and June Lockhart.

7:00—KECA—There will be no commercials, instead, an abundance of songs and Jimmy Wakely's guest appearance on the "Ginny Simms Botony Song Shop."

11:00—KNX—The annual cross-country celebrating of New Year's Eve from the different time zones, will again be presented by CBS. Nine of the nation's leading dance orchestras will be heard.

SPECIAL TOMORROW

9:45 A. M.—KNX—Pasadena Tournament of Roses parade.

10:45—KNX—Orange Bowl football game.

11:35—KECA—Sugar Bowl football game . . . Oklahoma U. vs. Kentucky.

11:00—KFI—Cotton Bowl game.

12:00—KNX—Rose Bowl football game.