

Spotlighting the Dial

Express Comics, KTSA, 9 a.m.
Popular comic strips appearing in the San Antonio Sunday Express colorfully dramatized by KTSA staff members.

Invitation to Learning, KTSA, 10:35 a.m.—The final discussion in the series on 20th century classics is based on Oswald Spengler's "The Decline of the West," with Denis Brogan and H. Eugene Dickhuth joining Dr. T. V. Smith in the discussion.

Church of the Air, KTSA, 9:30 a.m.—His Eminence Archbishop Michael of the Holy Eastern Orthodox Church will be the speaker on this program. Music will feature the St. Nicholas Greek Church Choir of Pittsburgh.

New York Philharmonic-Symphony, KTSA, 12 noon, (FM only)—The distinguished violinist Erica Morini is soloist as George Szell conducts the orchestra. Miss Morini will play the Tchaikovsky Concerto for Violin and Orchestra in D Major, and Szell will conduct two Beethoven works, the Overture to "Prometheus" and the Symphony No. 6 in F major, the "Pastoral."

New Year's Eve Dancing Party, KTSA, 10:30 p.m. to 2 a.m.—A three and one-half hour celebration brings to the air waves 18 of the nation's leading dance orchestras. The party to greet the New Year will stretch from coast to coast.

Theater Guild On the Air, WOAI, 7:30 p.m.—This program presents the intriguing story, "State Fair," with Van Heflin, and Gene, Kathleen and June Lockhart as stars. Challenge of the '50s, KTSA, 2:30 p.m.—Top correspondents of CBS have been arriving in New York from their world outposts for the full hour year-end report which will focus attention on the world situation.

People's Platform, KTSA, 11 a.m.—Stringfellow Barr, Allen W. Dulles and Nathaniel Peffer will be guests of Chairman Dwight Cooke in a discussion on the question, "How Can We Stop A World War in 1951?"

Carnation Contented Hour, KTSA, 9 p.m.—Two medleys, one of Armed Forces songs and the other of hit songs of 1950, will be offered by Tony Martin. Jo Stafford, the Ken Lane Singers and Victor Young's orchestra.

Opera Concert, KMAC, 8 p.m.
Soprano Eva Likova and tenor Joseph Victor Laderoute combine their voices in "Ton Coeur M'a Pas Compris" from Bizet's "Les Pêcheurs De Perles."

Jack Benny Program, KTSA, 6 p.m.—On his New Year's Eve show Benny will present a serio-comic fantasy in which the old year, represented by Father Time, greets little 1951 and gives him some tips on what might be done to make this a brighter world.

Horace Heidt Show, KTSA, 8:30 p.m.—Accordion player Lou DiMaggio will defend his youth opportunity title for the second consecutive time as new entertainers get a chance to show their wares.