

Dr. Christian, KTSA, 7:30 p.m.

The tenth annual Dr. Christian Award script competition, with $2,000 as first prize and this year's innovation of three special $500 awards, will be launched on this program. The prize-winning drama for this program is "Being Of Sound Mind" by Katherine S. Greer of Massillon, Ohio. It's the story of a 75-year-old spinster who, warned by Dr. Christian that she is seriously ill, reluctantly parts with her priceless untouchable heirlooms. When she recovers, she regrets her generosity. Dr. Christian devises a subtle plan for pleasing everyone concerned.

Mr. Chameleon, KTSA, 7 p.m.

The poison murder of a wealthy man who changed his will in favor of his nurse occupies the famous detective when he investigates "The Beautiful Blonde Nurse Murder Case." Suspects include the nurse, the man's son and daughter and a bank employe who has mysteriously disappeared.

Harold Peary Show, KTSA, 8 p.m. — Honest Harold Hemp lands a job for his cousin Raymond as a home demonstrator of pots and pans and other kitchenware, with many comic ensuing complications.

Bing Crosby Show, KTSA, 8:30 p.m.—Fred Astaire, who co-starred with Der Bingle in two Paramount musicals, swaps banter with Crosby and joins him in a parody of "The Thing." Jud Con-