

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00—KFI—The enlarged ego of Edwin Montague (Monty Wolley) swells to intolerable proportions when he is honored for his 25 years of Shakesperean acting. His father arrives at the silver jubilee dinner and puts his pompous son in his proper place.
- 6:30—KNX—H. G. Wells' classic story of "The Man Who Could Work Miracles" will be unfolded on "Escape" tonight. The leading part of "Fotheringay" is played by Ben Wright.
- 7:00—KHJ—"The Hidden Truth," based on the findings of a lie-detector, is back in this time slot. For several weeks it has been replaced by the more robust "sport" of football reporting.
- 8:00—KECA—Dick Powell moves his popular "Richard Diamond, Private Eye" series to this network tonight. The initial offering is "The Nathan Beeker Case."

TOMORROW

- 10:15—KMPC—High lights of the Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament will be reported throughout the day for the enlightenment of all golf fans . . . get your results at 1:00, 2:00, 3:00 and 4:30.
- 11:00—KECA—A star-studded cast of operatic favorites will be heard in Mozart's "Don Giovanni" from the Metropolitan Opera House. Paolo Silveri sings the title role with Eleanor Steber and Nadine Conner taking the feminine leads. Fritz Reiner conducts the orchestra.

TELE-TIPS