

DIAL LITES—TODAY

- 7:30—KECA—Choral groups of the best "Negro College Choirs" all over the country are brought to the air at this time each week.
- 11:00—KFI—The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Fulton Sheen returns to the "Catholic Hour" today. He will address a series of talks to the women whose love and sympathy he believes will save the world in these days of lawlessness.
- 1:00—KNX—Anyone with a pet theory or an undiscovered talent has a chance to air his abilities. This series has proved so popular that it now takes this Sunday spot.
- 5:00—KNX—Edgar Bergen decides that it is high time that Charlie picked out a career for himself so he engages Joseph Szigeti, the great violinist, to test Charles musical talents.
- 9:30—KHJ—Giuseppe Verdi's grand opera classic "Aida" has been selected for the "Chicago Theater of the Air" broadcast. Soprano Alynne Dumas, tenor Richard Tucker and baritone Bruce Foote are starred in the production.
- 11:30—KFI—Representatives of labor, farming and industry band together to plead the cause of national unity during the present emergency on the revised "America United" series.