

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00—KFI—"What Should the American People Do to Conserve Their Water Resources" is the subject to be discussed on "The American Way." Samuel B. Morris of the L. A. Water Dept. and member of President Truman's Water Resources Policy Commission will share the debate with Franklin Thomas of Cal Tech.
- 7:00—KFI—The NBC Symphony orchestra will play the American premiere of Ghedini's "Concerto Del Albatro." The work written for violin and piano solo parts is based on Melville's novel "Moby Dick."
- 7:30—KECA—Ever hear of a dog breaking up a murder plot? He turns out to be a "howling success" as the "Terror in the Night" that saves the day on "Inner Sactum."
- 8:30—KHJ—Reaction to President Truman's morning address to Congress will be aired by Mutual commentators and members of Congress.
- 9:00—KNX—Joan Bennett stars as a young secretary who finds her "Dream Job" to be more like a nightmare on "Hollywood Star Playhouse." The work may be easy but the terms are hard . . . the terms of the will, that is.
