

TODAY'S HIGHLIGHTS

Startling new developments in heart therapy are described on "You and the World," by Dr. Irving S. Wright, president of the New York Heart Association. KTSA 5:15 p.m.

Bing Crosby presents two old jazz croonies, Jack Teagarden and Louis Armstrong, as guests. KTSA 8:30 p.m.

Edward R. Murrow, noted news analyst, presents a review of the top developments in news headlines.

KTSA 6:45 p.m.

Jack Benny portrays "King Midas" in a play "The Golden Touch" on Family Theater. KMAC 8:30 p.m.

Swenson

A young artist paints a portrait of a beautiful girl he has dreamed about on the Dr. Christian program.

KTSA 7:30 p.m.

Karl Swenson as Mr. Chameleon investigates "The Locked-Room Murder Case."

Art Waner brings his orchestra to the air waves with new old favorite dance tunes. KTSA 3:30 p.m.

Honest Harold Hemp on the Harold Peary Show gets a flattering offer from the big city. KTSA 8 p.m.