

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00 - KFI - The assignment for detectives of a police department tonight is to search and find the missing mother of three abandoned children. This is the documentary series of "Dragnet."
- 7:00 - KECA - Ann Blyth and Donald O'Connor will star in the one-hour radio dramatization of the laugh hit "Free for All," the "Screen Guild Players" program.
- 7:30 - KNS - The music of Richard Rodgers is featured tonight on the program of "The Choraliers," directed by Eugene Lowell.
- 8:30 - KHL - Sen. Kenneth S. Wherry (R.-Neb.) will be the interview guest on the "Reporter's Roundup" program. Newsmen from the N. Y. Times, Omaha World-Herald and the Newspaper enterprise association will be on hand with the questions.
- 9:30 - KECA - Ballots for the "Author Meets Critic" Award are now being counted in preparation for tonight's broadcast. The winners in the fiction and nonfiction fields will be announced, and the top authors will appear on the show for presentation of awards.