

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 8:30--KFI-- Jane Froman, popular songstress of radio, Broadway and the concert stage, will be the special guest soloist tonight on the "Voice of Firestone" program.
- 9:00--KNX-- Ronald Reagan, Ruth Hussey, Edmund Gwenn, Charles Coburn, Spring Byington and Piper Laurie recreate their original screen roles in the full-hour adaption of a different kind of romantic comedy, "Louisa."
- 9:00--KECA-- From the U.S. Army training camp, Camp Roberts, and under the sponsorship of Army and Air Force recruiting, comes "Let's Go," with Ralph Flanagan.
- 9:30--KFI-- A pretty secretary who used her employer's wife's charge account to stock up on expensive clothes becomes a murder suspect when the boss is killed. It's the "White Fur Coat Report" as related on "Under Arrest."
- 10:00--KNX-- Here's a shrewd operator who plots a million dollar robbery at the exact time he is to be married, figuring that his fiancée's habit of tardiness will give him his alibi. The play is titled "Calculated Risk" starring Vincent Price, during "Hollywood Star Playhouse."
- 10:30--KECA-- Screen star George Murphy will serve as emcee on a special broadcast tonight featuring festivities of the "Lincoln Day Box Supper," to be held at Washington, D. C. The program includes brief talks by leaders of the Senate and House.

TELE-TIPS