

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:30 KNN When Lucille Ball, as Liz Cooper, reads a blood-curdling mystery story to her husband, George, the sound effects are so realistic that the neighbors rush in to rescue her. This leaves "My Favorite Husband" with a bit of explaining to do.
- 6:30 KTL Art Linkletter emcees this special show which features top talent who lead off the YMCA fund-raising drive.
- 7:30 KTL Sen. Robert A. Taft, Republican policy leader in Congress, will address a Lincoln Day dinner in Chicago. He follows Herbert Hoover's speech by just 24 hours. Have the events of the last few weeks brought these two men into closer agreement about our foreign policy?
- 8:00 KFWB "The Community Hour" program, designed to foster intercultural relations, will be extended to a full hour tonight when screen star Mercedes McCambridge visits the forum.
- 8:30 KFI The Saar Basin in the Ruhr is the scene of the international struggle in which the "Man Called X" plays an important role. Black diamonds, the coal of the area, is the stake; they may even be worth the peace of the world.
- 9:30 KECA Here is a special documentary entitled "Journey for Peace" which will describe Gen. Eisenhower's recent trip to Europe.
