

DIAL LITES—TODAY

- 1:30 KNN "CBS News Room, Sunday Desk" returns with Chet Huntley analyzing top news events of the week. He is joined by correspondents from the Korean theater, Tom Harmon with sports news and George Fisher with the latest from Hollywood.
- 3:00 KFI Tallulah Bankhead invades the film capital for the scene of this week's "Big Show." Here she runs into a solid wall of comedians who will attempt to depose this grand lady. Leading off is Groucho Marx followed by Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis and comedy queen, Joan Davis and Gordon McRae.
- 4:00 KIL "Harmony House," a full hour musical and dramatic variety program bows in on Mutual today. The latest waxings of Tony Martin, Dinah Shore and Mario Lanza will be heard on the initial broadcast while the dramatic portion is supplied by Marvin Miller as he narrates "Horton Hatches the Egg."
- 5:30 KFI Ginger Rogers plays the part of a girl who is unjustly convicted of a theft. The revenge she plots is ingenious but "Within the Law." In this "Theater Guild of the Air" production Miss Rogers is co-starred with Lee Tracy.
- 8:00 KNN "Meet Corliss Archer," who this week prevails upon the gentlemen in her life, Dexter and Dad, to join a dancing class. The gents take a dim view of it and go bowling instead. . . . Well!
- 9:30 KBCA Melodies for easy listening are heard on Sammy Kaye's "Sunday Serenade." Today they play a medley of reminiscent tunes including "Sweet and Lovely," "When Day Is Done" and "Once in a While."

TELE-TIPS