

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00 KECA A special broadcast, marking the presentation of the charter to the Philadelphia Chapter of the City of Hope, will be heard tonight. Appearing as guests will be Rosalind Russell, Broderick Crawford, Cary Grant, Douglas Fairbanks Jr., Lee Cobb, John Payne and Bert Parks.
- 6:30 KNX Liz Cooper (played by Lucille Ball) gets into trouble tonight as she discovers that her driving license has expired. She is worried about taking a driver's test, because of her inability to park a car.
- 6:30 KFI Dennis Day becomes a British gentleman—accent, spats, cane and all as he puts his "A Day in the Life of Dennis Day" on the air.
- 7:30 KECA A special public affairs broadcast will be given tonight when Ambassador Ernest A. Gross speaks on "The Role of the United Nations."
- 8:00 KFVB Motion picture stars Edward G. Robinson and Robert Ryan co-star in a dramatic sketch on the "Community Hour." The drama will honor Israeli Consul Reuven Dafni, who will soon leave for Israel.
- 8:15 KHJ William Gargan will be the host for tonight's "Mr. Mystery" broadcast, during this hot-stove session for "who dunnit" addicts.
