

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 7:00—KHJ—How "The Hidden Truth" was uncovered by employing the lie detector machine solves an unusual murder case involving an escaped lunatic and his wife's subsequent death.
- 7:00--KFI - Chester A. Riley starts a domestic war by taking in the belle of the neighborhood as a star boarder on "The Life of Riley" series.
- 7:00—KECA—Two top-ranking light-heavyweights . . . Harry Matthews of Seattle, and Bob Murphy of San Diego, battle it out in a scheduled 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden, N. Y.
- 7:30—KNX—Coeds from Southland universities present the pros and cons of a subject of critical interest to their age group, "Should Women Be Drafted for Noncombat Military Service," on tonight's "Woman's Forum."
- 8:30—KECA—"The Tin Can Killing," a case which brings into operation almost every scientific crime detection method, brings to justice a trio of amateur criminals who couldn't resist a "good thing." "This Is Your FBI."

TOMORROW

- 11:00—KECA—Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana" and Leoncavallo's "Pagliacci" will both be heard from the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House.
- 11:00—KHJ—Music by French, Russian and Spanish composers is featured by Alfred Wallenstein when he conducts the "Symphonies for Youth" today. High lights of the program are Rimsky-Korsakov's "Caprice Espagnol" and Bizet's "Carmen Suite."
- 4:30—KECA—Joe Hernandez, famed turfcaster, calls the mile and one-quarter $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap in which the nation's top flight horses will participate.