

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 5:30—KFI—Rise Stevens, mezzo-soprano of opera, concert and motion pictures, will be the guest soloist tonight on the "Voice of Firestone" program.
- 6:00—KNX—Richard Widmark, as a Navy doctor, and Paul Douglas, as a skeptical police captain, recreate their original roles in the full-hour radio adaptation of "Panic in the Streets," during "Radio Theatre."
- 7:30—KECA—A calculated plan of a boy and his aunt to inherit money is the plot tonight for the drama "The Death Proposal" on "Inner Sanctum."
- 8:30—KFI—A Rudolph Friml operetta, as adapted for radio by Jean Holloway, will be presented tonight on "The Railroad Hour."
- 9:30—KHJ—The defense emergency, and the importance of our harbors, places the spotlight on harbor police. Tonight's "Crime Fighters" program presents a phase of a marine policeman's lot on "Harbor Patrol."