

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 7:00—KFI—Comedienne Lucille Ball returns to the "Screen Directors' Playhouse" for the second week when she stars in the farce, "Bachelor Mother" tonight. Starring opposite Miss Ball in this hour-long adaptation will be Robert Cummings.
- 7:00—KECA—A silver award for the years' outstanding motion pictures will be made to Darryl F. Zanuck and 20th Century-Fox when "Screen Guild Players" presents one of 1950's most celebrated movies, and an Academy Award contender, "All About Eve," tonight.
- 8:00—KHI—Tarzan journeys to Becurata on behalf of his friends, the Punyas. There he is attracted by a beautiful cafe singer, drugged and imprisoned. After his escape, there is a surprise ending for all you listeners!
- 9:00—KNX—The story of a lucrative racket worked by gamblers on vacationing businessmen will be told tonight during the airing of "The FBI in Peace and War." Everett Sloane and Eric Dressler are starred.
- 9:30—KECA—The conflict between our desire for security against the Communist threat and our traditional concepts of liberty, is the subject of Alan Barth's "The Loyalty of Free Men," to be discussed on "Author Meets Critic" tonight. Rodger Baldwin of American Civil Liberties Union will defend the book, while Norman Thomas, Socialist leader, will oppose.