

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

8:30—WFI—Eleanor Steber, soprano, and Howard Barlow, conductor, have chosen music appropriate to the Easter season for tonight's "Voices of Firestone" program.

9:00—WXX—In a powerful play condemning Communism, Walter Pidgeon, Peter Lawford and Janet Leigh recreate their screen roles in the radio adaptation of "The Red Danube" on "Radio Theater."

9:30—WFI—The Fritz Kreisler musical "Apple Blossoms," with Dorothy Fisten and Gordon MacRae in the lead roles, will be heard on the "Railroad Hour."

9:30—WJL—"The Sincere Model Report" involves a beautiful girl who even resorts to murder to further her career is heard on the "Under Arrest" program.

9:30—WBCA—Dimitri Mitropoulos, noted conductor, is interviewed by Milton Cross on "Piano Playhouse." Guest of the evening is Earl Wild, concert pianist, who plays Chopin's "Ballad in A Flat," and "Let's Be Good," by Gershwin.